The crumbs of Jesus. The leftover love. A small dose of his grace is enough to change a life. And here is where the story comes home to roost for us. Unless you grew up in the shadow of the temple mount in Israel, you are the outsider. Unless you can trace your heritage to King David, or Father Abraham, then you're the outsider. Me too.

One individual, one human with flaws, was all it took for God to save the world. Crumbs make us who we are, show us what team we are playing for, and remind us that our God can do wonders with the tiniest bits and pieces -- with just mere crumbs. And those crumbs are more than enough. Text. Mark 7:24-30
